CITIZENS' FORUM

Connie Koenig, 6th & H Street—Provided report regarding A Street Tank Memorial (attached.)

Mary Jo Brown, North Dayton Avenue—Would like to see the tank stay where it is. Suggests naming the West End Park the Frank Miglio War Memorial Park and moving the tank there.

Mike Andrew, Burkittsville Road—Head of Brunswick Veterans Memorial—Group has refurbished the tank. Proud of Brunswick's history and thinks history should be visible, not hidden away. Wishes the tank to stay where it is.

Alan Phillips—4th Avenue—Wants the tank to remain where it is.

Rick Frederick—605 Central Avenue—Also a member of Brunswick Veterans Memorial. Wants tank to remain where it is.

Floyd Goetz—Provides petition signed by some 278 Brunswick residents who are upset that Tank issue is being brought up again.

CONSENT AGENDA

OLD BUSINESS

A Street Tank Memorial–Reconsideration of Decision–Mayor explains why this issue is back on the agenda. Council voted on this issue on March 25, 2008. After vote, some Council discussion about reconsidering vote. Any Council member can bring this back up for a vote at this meeting. Before any discussion continues, a motion must be made to reconsider Council's vote.

Smith–Feels that goal of Main Street is to maintain history of Brunswick; the tank is Brunswick's history.

No motion to reconsider.
